RELIGIOUS EDUCATION FORMATION

The Religious Education program completed the school year at Gilman and at Sheldon on Wednesday, May 1st. Students: your participation in your Catholic faith never ends. Check your summer Mass assignments weekly.

Next Sunday, May 19th, we celebrate BACCALAUREATE with all our Catholic graduating high school seniors. The church extends blessings, joy and wishes to each student. Congratulations to all our high school seniors and graduates of higher institutions.

CONGRATULATIONS to Eva Kopacz, Wilbur Dachel, Claire Drier, Kayleigh James, Brady McAlpine, Brayden Olynick, Talyn Podolak, and Joseph Syryczuk on their CONFIRMATION today at Our Lady of Sorrows in Ladysmith. In this sacrament, we become adults in the Church and we are expected to lead others into the one true Church, the Catholic Church, by our prayers, words and good example. We are not finished learning about the Church. You should continue to seek understanding in the Bible and participate as adults by attending Sunday Mass and adult education classes. In fact, you should strive to bring others to our Church. You are not finished with Church – you have only just begun!

~Georgi Whelan
