St. John the Baptist – June 24

Only three birthdays are celebrated on the Church’s liturgical calendar: the Nativity of the Lord (December 25), the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary (September 8) and the Nativity of John the Baptist (June 24). St. John the Baptist was set apart to prepare the way of the Lord and was a significant figure connected to the Incarnation and the Redemption. The Church honors him because of his role in preparing the way of Christ. God sent many prophets to speak to us before Jesus. This is because at first, He tried to speak to us Himself, and we disobeyed. He chose men throughout history to be prophets, to teach others about Him. Throughout the Old Testament, people were even unfaithful to God through the teachings and leading of the prophets. God sent prophets, just like he sent John the Baptist, to soften their hearts, call them to repentance, and truly prepare people for Christ’s coming so they’d be able to recognize Him and receive Him when they encountered Him. John was the last of these and the greatest.
